Issue 109 - November 2022

- General updates [#tab_02221]
- Compliance updates [#tab_02222]

Welcome to the latest issue of SRA Update. It's November, which marks the start of our new business year. With it comes our latest Business Plan, which sets out our work for the next year, which you can find out about in this issue. As well as making sure that the solicitor profession maintains the high standards we and the public expect, we will continue to explore the opportunities that lawtech and innovation offer, and increasing our work on anti-money laundering. Also this month, we still welcome your views on a number of proposals including running our own indemnity scheme for claims made after six years of a firm closing, our new financial penalties regime and updates to the police representatives accreditation scheme.

Keeping of the Roll returns next year [<https://www.sra.org.uk/sra/news/press/2022->]

press-releases/annual-exercise-solicitors-practising-certificates/

Following changes in the law regarding how personal data is used, we are reintroducing a requirement for those without practising certificates to tell us you wish to remain on the roll of solicitors. Ahead of this it is important that all solicitors without a practising certificate check that their contact details within mySRA are up to date.

Proposed changes to police station representatives scheme

[<https://www.sra.org.uk/sra/news/press/2022-press-releases/police-station-representation-rules-consultation/>]

Following a review of our Police Station Representatives Accreditation Scheme, we are making some minor changes. These will guarantee the process is robust and the appropriate standards are delivered consistently across the two organisations carrying out the assessments. Have your say on our proposals.

Firm undertakings – legal and regulatory obligations

[<https://www.sra.org.uk/solicitors/guidance/undertakings-behalf-incorporated-practices/>]

A new Supreme Court ruling has implications for those firms that have given undertakings. Our guidance makes it clear that while you might not have an obligation to the court under following this ruling, there are still professional obligations to take care of.
