Decision details

Who does this disciplinary decision relate to?

Grayfield Solicitors Limited (the firm), is a recognised body whose offices are at 148 High Road, Romford, RM6 6NT.

Summary of Decision

The firm was fined £6,663 for:

1. Failing to consistently have in place a compliant firm wide risk assessment, and/or proper policies controls and procedures to prevent activities relating to money laundering and terrorist financing as required by the Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (the MLRs 2017).
2. Failing to obtain accountants reports in line with its regulatory obligations to do so.

3. Failing to investigate and correct issues on its client account reconciliations.

Reasons/basis

Facts of the misconduct

The SRA commissioned a forensic investigation into the firm in January 2023. The investigation identified a number of issues with the firm's AML policies, as well as a failure to obtain two accountant's reports at the end of the financial years 2021 and 2022. The forensic investigation also identified issues with the firm's regular client account reconciliations.

It was found that:

Allegation One (a)

Between 26 June 2017 and April 2019, the firm failed to have in place an adequate firm-wide risk assessment (FWRA) pursuant to Regulation 18 of the MLRs 2017. In doing so, it breached Principles 6, 7 and 8 of the SRA Principles 2011 and Outcome 7.5 of the SRA Code of Conduct 2011.

Allegation One (b)

Between March 2021 and January 2024, the firm failed to have in place an adequate FWRA pursuant to Regulation 18 of the MLRs 2017. In doing so, it breached Principle 2 of the SRA Principles 2019 and paragraph 2.1(a) of the SRA Code of Conduct for Firms 2019.

Allegation Two (a)

Between 26 June 2017 and April 2019, the firm failed to establish and maintain policies, controls and procedures (PCPs) which met the requirements of Regulation 19 of the MLRs 2017. In doing so, it breached Principles 6, 7 and 8 of the SRA Principles 2011 and Outcome 7.5 of the SRA Code of Conduct 2011.

Allegation Two (b)

Between January 2020 and January 2024, the firm failed to establish and maintain PCPs which met the requirements of Regulation 19 of the MLRs 2017. In doing so, it breached Principle 2 of the SRA Principles 2019 and paragraph 2.1(a) of the SRA Code of Conduct for Firms 2019.

Allegation Three

For the accounting periods ending 31 July 2021 and 31 July 2022, the firm failed to obtain accountant's reports for those accounting periods within six months. In doing so, it breached Rule 12.1(a) of the SRA Accounts Rules 2019, Principle 2 of the SRA Principles 2019 and paragraph 2.1(a) of the SRA Code of Conduct for Firms 2019.

Allegation Four

Between September 2021 and November 2022, the firm failed to investigate and resolve any differences shown by its client account reconciliation. In doing so, it breached Rule 8.3 of the SRA Accounts Rules 2019, Principle 2 of the SRA Principles 2019 and paragraph 2.1(a) of the SRA Code of Conduct for Firms 2019.

Other information

Decision on sanction

The firm was directed to pay a financial penalty of £6,663 and ordered to pay costs of £1,350.

This was because the firm's conduct was serious by reference to the following factors in the SRA Enforcement Strategy:

1. The findings relate to breaches of the MLRs 2017, which protect the public from the serious consequences of money laundering, and improper withdrawals of client money.
2. The findings also related to the management of the client account, which was sacrosanct.
3. Its conduct was a breach of its regulatory obligations which persisted for longer than was reasonable.
4. The firm was responsible for its own conduct which was serious and had the potential to cause harm to the public interest and to public confidence in the legal profession.

In view of the above, the firm's conduct was placed in conduct band C which has a financial penalty of 1.6% to 3.2% of annual domestic turnover. The firm's conduct was placed in the lower range of this band at C1 (1.6% of annual domestic turnover).

In placing the conduct at the lower end of the band, the following mitigating factors were considered:

1. The firm's FWRA and PCPs had been compliant between April 2019 and 2020/2021.
2. The breaches had been partially remedied. The firm had updated its policies, obtained accountants reports and was working on the issues on its accounts reconciliations.
3. The firm had shown some insight and made admissions.
