You will need to do this annually if you wish to remain on the roll.

You should complete the application through mySRA. This is unless you need a reasonable adjustment, where, for example, we could send you a hard copy of the application to complete instead.

Please contact us [https://www.sra.org.uk/contactus] to make a request if needed. All applications will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

The £20 administration fee must be paid by credit or debit card at the end of the application form. However, an employer may choose to reimburse the fee afterwards.

What are the benefits to staying on the roll?

Staying on the roll means you:

- can continue to call yourself a solicitor without a practising certificate
- remain a member of the Law Society and can access the associated benefits.
- retain the right to vote in Law Society Council elections.

What happens if I do not apply within the application window?

If you wish to remain on the roll, you must apply between 3 April and 28 May 2025.

If you do not apply, we will send you a notice of our decision to remove you from the roll. This will be after the application window closes on 28 May 2025.

There will be 28 days, from the date we send you our notice, to appeal your removal.

Your name will be removed from the roll if no appeal is made, or our decision is upheld.

Can I be removed from the roll without my knowledge?

We will email you using the contact email address you have recorded in your mySRA. This will be done on multiple occasions, both before and during the application window.

You need to apply each year to remain on the roll. This is to make sure the data we hold on solicitors without a practising certificate is accurate and up to date.

Yes, there is a £20 administration fee which covers the cost of the exercise and maintaining our records.

Why do I need to remove my current employment details when completing the application?

We understand you may be working in some other capacity and not as a solicitor, so you may be wondering why you need to end your employment details. This is because we only need to hold your employment details if you are practising or working under section 88 (Solicitors Act 1974). Therefore, you will need to delete this from your account in order to complete your application.

If you are on the roll and are working, you should consider carefully whether you need a practising certificate, particularly if you are working in a law firm in any capacity. Find out when you need a practising certificate/.

Issues receiving emails

The contact email address listed in mySRA is correct, why am I not getting emails from the SRA?

There are a number of reasons why, even when we are sending them to a correct address, our emails may not be getting through to you.

For example, they may be getting blocked by your internet service provider or company firewall, or automatically rerouted to spam folders.

Please read our receiving emails from us guidance
[https://www.sra.org.uk/home/contact-us/receiving-emails-from-us/] for the simple steps you can take to make sure emails we send to you are received.
