Reasons/basis

This notification relates to a Decision to prosecute before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal. This is an independent Tribunal which will reach its own decision after considering all the evidence, including any evidence put forward by the Solicitor. The allegations are subject to a Hearing before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal and are as yet unproven.

The matter was heard between 16 July 2018 and 1 August 2018.

Mr. Good was fined £30,000.

The SDT judgment will be available at www.solicitorstribunal.org.uk [<http://www.solicitorstribunal.org.uk>].

The SRA appealed to the High Court (Administrative Court) against the Tribunal's decision dated 1 August 2018.

The Appeal was heard by Flaux LJ and Carr J on 19 March 2019 and Judgment handed down on 2 April 2019.

The Appeal was allowed.

The Tribunal's Order imposing a £30,000 fine was quashed and substituted with an order that Mr Good be struck off the Roll of Solicitors from 2 April 2019.
