Decision details

In the matter of Dawn Plant

A person who is or was involved in legal practice but is not a solicitor.

Section 43 Solicitors Act 1974 (As amended)

Dawn Plant, a chartered legal executive, amended three client wills while employed as a legal executive by Pinkney Grunwells Lawyers LLP. The amendments made her a beneficiary under each will. Ms Plant failed to ensure each client took independent legal advice before she amended the wills and became a beneficiary.

Finding

Dawn Plant who is or was involved in a legal practice (as defined by section 43(1A) of the Solicitors Act 1974) but is not a solicitor, has occasioned or been a party to, with or without the connivance of a solicitor, an act or default in relation to a legal practice which involved conduct on her part of such a nature that in the opinion of the Society it would be undesirable for her to be involved in a legal practice in all of the ways set out below.

Order

To make a section 43 order to take effect 28 days from the date of the letter or email notifying Dawn Plant of this decision:

- i. no solicitor shall employ or remunerate her in connection with his/her practice as a solicitor;
- ii. no employee of a solicitor shall employ or remunerate her in connection with the solicitor's practice;
- iii. no recognised body shall employ or remunerate her;
- iv. no manager or employee of a recognised body shall employ or remunerate her in connection with the business of that body;
- v. no recognised body or manager or employee of such a body shall permit her to be a manager of the body; and
- vi. no recognised body or manager or employee of such a body shall permit her to have an interest in the body except in accordance with a Society permission.

This Order is subject to a statutory right of review to the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal.
