Reasons/basis

This notification relates to a Decision to prosecute before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal. This is an independent Tribunal which will reach its own decision after considering all the evidence, including any evidence put forward by the Solicitor. The Tribunal has certified that there is a case to answer in respect of allegations which are or include that, whilst admitted to the roll of solicitors, Miss Condliffe:-

1. Between 22 October 2018 and September 2019, misled investors into believing that following receipt of the completed transfer form, completion monies and sourcing fee, she would complete the transfer of a property but failed to do so.

2. Misled the SRA on 14 February 2022, by stating that the investors entered into a standard common-law management tenancy with an option to purchase when this was not true; and
3. Misled the Court on 16 January 2023 by stating in her Defence and Counterclaim that the investors wanted a residential purchase lease option until they were ready to finalise the registration process when this was untrue.

The allegations are subject to a Hearing before the Solicitors Disciplinary Tribunal and are as yet unproven.
