Decision details

Ashtons Solicitors Limited was directed to pay a stage two fixed financial penalty of £1,500 and costs of £150.

Reasons/basis

The SRA Transparency Rules came into effect on 6 December 2018.

They require all firms authorised and regulated by the SRA to display specified information on their websites if they provide certain types of legal services.

The purpose of the Transparency Rules is to ensure people have accurate and relevant information about a solicitor or firm when they are considering purchasing legal services.

They are intended to help members of the public and small businesses make informed choices, improving competition in the legal market.

Ashtons Solicitors Limited failed to publish mandatory details about its:

- costs for residential conveyancing work
- costs for probate work
- costs for immigration work
- its complaints procedure and
- how a complaint might be made to the SRA or the Legal Ombudsman.

in breach of rules 1.5 and 2.1 of the Transparency Rules.
