

Government sanctions regime - how all firms can stay compliant

3 May 2023

The Government's financial sanctions regime, imposed to achieve specific foreign policy or national security objectives, is continually changing. Law firms have to a key role to play. The sanctions regime applies to all firms that provide legal services, not just those that are captured by the anti-money laundering regulations.

We have already published guidance for firms to make sure you understand your obligations.

This free webinar provides a practical introduction to the fast-changing sanctions regime, including how to comply and what to do if you find yourself in breach.

Join us to get the facts on:

- an overview of the sanctions regime
- how sanctions might affect your practice
- what to look out for
- where to find guidance
- how to check for sanctioned status
- enforcement, reporting and mitigation.
