Information we do not publish

Generally we do not publish information that is:

- protected from disclosure, for example because the law says so
- in draft form
- no longer readily available, for example because it is in our archives
- too resource-intensive to prepare

Equality information

We are committed to fair and equal treatment and we comply with the Equalities Act 2010 by publishing equality information about:

- Employment data
- Regulatory outcomes data
- Equality impact assessments
- Research reports

Accessing information not included in our publication scheme

Our transparency code sets out how we respond to requests for recorded information held by us that is not included in our publication scheme. You should send requests to our Information Compliance Team
